State Health Officials Schedule Discussion Of Polio Vaccinations

Educators and health officials from all over the State were to meet Monday (March 7) in Baltimore to discuss the proposed poliomyelitis vaccination project in Maryland schools this spring, it was announced today by Dr. Thomas G. Pullen, State Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. Robert H. Riley, Director of the State Public Health Department. The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Approximately 60 representatives of county and city departments of education, including public, private and parochial schools, and health officials will make plans for the inoculations of first and second grade school children if the results of last year's field trial are successful and if the vaccine is licensed by the National Institute of Health.

Provided that the vaccine is released, it will be available to approximately 150,000 children in Maryland. The inoculations will be entirely voluntary and parents will be asked to sign a formal request before their child is vaccinated by the physician.

"Although the results of the evaluation study will not be known until April, plans must be made now so that if the vaccine is proved effective we can start vaccinating at once in order that the inoculations be completed before the polio season begins," said Dr. Edward Davens, Chief of the Bureau of Preventive Medicine, State Health Department.

"It is important that each child who starts the polio vaccination series gets all three injections," Dr. Davens said. There is to be approximately a two week interval between the first and second inoculations and a lapse of 3 to 4 weeks between the second and third.

"If the vaccine is released, time will be extremely limited, because of the intervals in giving the three injections, the closing of schools, and the necessity of having the entire series completed before the beginning of the polio season in Maryland," he said. The onset of the polio season in Maryland is generally about the first of July, he explained.

"The main reason for the selection of first and second grade children for the inoculations is because of the high occurrence of paralytic poliomyelitis in this age group," Dr. Davens said.

There will be no charge for the vaccination of school children, Dr. Davens said. The vaccine will be supplied to the State Health Department without charge by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The NFIP has taken a calculated financial risk by contracting to purchase a supply of vaccine to keep production going during the period before the results will be known. This is to insure that vaccine would be on hand immediately after licensing.

Additional amounts of vaccine will also be available to private physicians.

"There is a great deal of preliminary planning to be done and educators and health officials will have to work out the details for this proposed mass inoculation program very carefully," Dr. Davens said.

"The support and cooperation of all supervisors, teachers, principals and others in the schools will be of utmost importance in carrying out this important preventive health activity," he said.

Sorry, Right Number

The board of directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company voted February 28 to authorize expenditures totaling $150,000 for new facilities in Greenbelt, Silver Spring, Suitland and Riggs.

Red Cross Kicks Off Campaign; Goal $1,000

The Red Cross opened its annual drive in Greenbelt, March 1, and hopes to meet its goal of $1000 by March 31. According to Henry Brautigam, chairman of the Lions Club-sponsored local drive, volunteers to solicit contributions have already been assigned in most courts. However, anyone wishing to volunteer for such services should contact him at the local bank or call 4416. Every housewife is urged to become a Red Cross member by making a contribution in addition to that by her husband at his place of business, Brautigam declared.

Testimonial Planned For Chief Panagoulis

A testimonial dinner for George Panagoulis, County Chief of Police will be held Wednesday, March 16, at the Prince Georges County Country Club. The dinner will start at 7 p.m. with cocktails at 6 p.m. Tickets for the affair are available at the city offices or from any city council member.

Panagoulis served the city of Greenbelt as Director of Public Safety for the past 18 years and was appointed county chief last month. The dinner will be a tribute to him from his many friends in appreciation for his services to this community.

JCC Dedication Service Set For Friday Mar. 18

Next Friday, March 18, marks the dedication service at the Jewish Community Center on Ridge Road corner Westway. Rabbi Raymond Krinsky of the Northeast Hebrew Congregation in Mount Rainier, Maryland, will conduct the service. Rabbi Krinsky is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York City and is a former Air Force chaplain.

Speaking at the service will be Elihu Platt, well known lay chaplain of the Jewish Welfare Board and currently on the Executive Board of the Jewish Community Council of Washington. His topic will be "Judaism for the Modern Jew."

Following the service the congregation will have an Oneg Shabbath celebration. Refreshments will be served.

In addition to the dedication service Friday evening, the Jewish Community Center is holding open house Sunday afternoon, March 20, from 3 to 5 p.m. for all their friends and neighbors in Greenbelt. The formal dedicatory program will be held Sunday evening, March 20, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

9 GVHC Candidates Speak At GCS Forum

By Rae Algaze

Tuesday, March 8, the Greenbelt Citizens' Association sponsored an open forum giving candidates for the Greenbelt Veterans Housing Corporation an opportunity to express their aims, if elected. The meeting was attended by nine of the fourteen candidates, and eleven members of the GCA.

The candidates spoke briefly and pledged to bring to the board the benefit of their training and experience, with a view toward improving present conditions as concern GVHC management, the board of directors and the membership.

Ed Burgoon, acting president of the Board and candidate for reelection, reiterated that membership participation is so poor that a monthly newsletter must be issued in order to keep the membership informed of activities, and urge them to take part in these affairs.

After the candidates expressed their views, a general discussion followed on problems of current interest such as landscaping, maintenance, private construction of fences, sheds, garages, the parking problem and its transfer to the city government, and other issues affecting mutual home-ownership. It was brought out that some members are apathetic about participation in the corporation's affairs, while others go all out for better understanding and relationship between the membership and GVHC. It becomes the duty of the board and management to make decisions that benefit and please the majority of the members.

Biographies of the fourteen candidates appeared in last week's issue of the News Review as a paid advertisement. Votes are to be cast during the annual meeting, Thursday, March 10 at 8:15 p.m. in

Parking Plan In Courts Proposed; Permits Only; Cost Dollar A Year

A new parking plan for Greenbelt inner courts was proposed by city manager Charles McDonald which will alleviate the shortage of parking space. The plan calls for city permits to be issued to residents of each court at a cost of $1 a year and a space will be assigned to the resident. Spaces will be marked off, and additional unrequested spaces will be set aside for visitors.

McDonald disclosed that numerous complaints of citizens regarding the shortage of parking space near dwellings has prompted the parking proposal. Also, some courts have residents with two or more cars in the family, increasing the space shortage. All residents approached by McDonald so far, regarding this plan, have expressed approval, informally, McDonald stated.

Signs will be placed at the entrances to each court stating "parking by permit only" so that motorists can be informed. Guests of residents can use their hosts' parking space, but the host will not be permitted to use a neighbor's space. It is assumed he will park on the street.

The plan was approved for first reading by the city council and will be discussed further at the next meeting. It is expected that resident reaction to the plan will be expressed to the council members by that time. The ordinance provides for a fine for motorists using space without a permit. McDonald disclosed that the courts are city property and regulated by municipal ordinances.

Since the Rescue Squad is a completely volunteer organization, members receive no compensation for their service. All funds collected during the annual drive are used for upkeep of the Squad's two ambulances and other emergency equipment.

During the drive one or more key workers from every court are contacting all residents of their area. Since only these workers receive membership cards for canvassing purposes—one for each family in their court—residents can be assured that all canvassers are authorized to collect funds for the Squad, President Zoellner reports.

Chairmen for the membership drive are Joe D'Agostino and Elizabeth Iseli. Any resident who is not contacted by next Tuesday, the closing day of the drive, may call Mr. D'Agostino at GR 4-9419 or Mrs. Iseli at GR 4-9205 to have a worker call for his Ambulance Club fee. Since no funds are being collected by the Police Department this year, residents are requested not to call the Department for this purpose.

Lights Go On Again As Baseball Begins

Lights in the ball park will be refurbished for the coming baseball season, it was decided at the city council meeting last Monday night. After a plea by Councilman Ben Goldfaden to add greater illumination in the ball field area, the council voted $1000 to replace and repair faulty light fixtures.

"Some of the outfielders couldn't see the ball until it was on top of them," Goldfaden declared.

The lights were originally erected 15 years ago, and the reflectors have rusted and deteriorated, city manager Charles McDonald disclosed.

The lights are expected to be in good order in time for the opening game of a new softball league which is being organized. The teams will represent various organizations in the Washington metropolitan area and will include a Greenbelt team. The city will provide bats and balls for the team, but not uniforms, which are expected to come from local business organizations.

The softball games at night were called "the best summer entertainment in Greenbelt" by spectator James Corneal, who approved the council appropriation.

The Greenbelt theater, and polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday, March 11. Election will be by simple majority.

City To Spend $3,000 On Street Curbing

Greenbelt streets will soon be "curbed," it was disclosed at the city council meeting last Monday night. City Manager Charles McDonald asked approval of the council to spend city funds for a project to put rolled macadam curbing along the streets. The practice of motorists parking on the edges of the grass has caused continued expenditures of funds to repair the damage, McDonald explained. He felt it would be more economical to place curbs along the street edges to prevent this damage.

A suggestion by Councilman Ben Goldfaden to have the work done by contract will be considered by McDonald. However, McDonald stated, the work would probably be more costly by contract; it would require lengthy specifications and drawings, and the work of qualified engineers, he added.

McDonald expects to hire additional help to install the curbs so that the normal spring work program will not be delayed. The work was estimated by McDonald to cost about $3000 and will take three months to accomplish.

New REC Committee To Watch Program

A new committee on recreation was formed by the city council last Monday night. The committee will keep tabs on the recreation program in the city and county and make recommendations to the council. The members of the committee were selected by the council. They are: Kent Smith (Wolfe), Allen Chotiner (Smith), Mrs. Abe Chasanow (Canning), Robert Halpin (Goldfaden) and Bernie Emmert (Hurst).

Community Ads

Some people have wondered how we could afford to put out six page issues of the News Review the last two weeks, when we've been down-and-out. The reason for these super sized papers is two-fold. For one, there were advertisements that had to be in just at that time, and which of course carried the expense those weeks. Secondly, we wanted to print the news and stories when most timely, if possible.

Community ads are coming in nicely, and we thank those organizations who've been sending them in. We hope to see more organization's advertisements announcing special events, special meetings, and fund raising affairs. This all helps keep us on an even keel. Keep them coming. We need them.

NOTICE TO ALL PUBLICITY DIRECTORS OF GREENBELT

Don't get mad at us if your story gets left out of the paper. Sometimes ads come in the last minute, which crowd other stuff out, and we try to use our judgment about what can safely be postponed. Please be patient if we make a mistake. If there is a story you especially want in that week, send a note along with the copy saying so, and we will try to heed it.

Marian Hatton - 3231

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Shifflet are proud to announce the arrival on March 1 of Franklin Norwood. He was ushered in at Prince Georges Hospital and joins a brother, Robert Allan, 16 months, at 14-F Crescent.

The Bruce Bowman's, 14-Z-3 Laurel Hill are eagerly awaiting the arrival of his mother, Mrs. A. C. Sursaw, on Saturday. She's coming in from Saginaw, Michigan and plans to stay about a week.

Happy birthday to Alexa Lee Sieman who has just turned seven. 10-G Southway was the scene of her party.

Sorry to hear that Eugene Solomon has the dubious distinction of having the first case of poison ivy in town.

Pvt. 1/C Donald J. Flynn has just been transferred from Ft. Devens to Frankfurt, Germany. Donald has been in the Signal Corps for about a year.

Mrs. Edward Trumbule, formerly of Greenbelt is in Garfield Hospital recuperating from surgery and would appreciate hearing from some of her many friends and neighbors. A card or a phone call can mean so much.

Murray and Ida Ryss have just moved from 33-S Ridge to 2-J Westway and their new phone number is GR. 3-4361. Make a note of it, please!

Brownie Troop 109 is making a trip into Washington on Saturday to hear the National Symphony Orchestra perform a special Girl Scout concert.

Happy birthday to twelve-year old Janet Ruth Miller. She had an all-girl party at her home on March 1, 13-V Ridge to help her celebrate.

Shake out your peasant skirts, girls, THAT MAN is coming to town again. Dave Rosenberg will be doing the calling at the JCC affair Saturday night at the Center School, and I hope to see all you peasants there.

Sgt. Theodore Coleman has just returned from a 16-month tour of duty in Korea and is currently being discharged from Ft. Mead. Understand that he is a thinner version of his former self but his family and friends will probably take care of that in short order! Theodore is the eldest son of Robert and Betty Coleman, 11-D Hillside.

Notice some of your favorite friends and neighbors looking a little askew lately? Put the blame on "Vera" who has left the Greenbelt Beauty Shop. The lure of motherhood proved too strong.

Mrs. Ellen Linson, 14-E Crescent, had a very pleasant visit with her sister and her brother-in-law last week. The Reverend and Mrs. Paul McCleave and two of their three children have just returned from a year's stay in Geneva, Switzerland and are now on their way home to Bozeman, Montana. He spoke at the 9 a.m. service at the Community Church, sharing some of his experiences as a United States Representative at a Protestant school set up to minimize the differences between various denominations. Very interesting people and I only wish more of us had had an opportunity of meeting them.

We do, however, still have a chance to meet another very interesting pair in town, and I hope all you neighbors will welcome them. Mr. Santana and Mr. Gusman, who are here from Puerto Rico studying Co-ops are staying with the Gail Harpers at 2-B Eastway. Mr. Santana is working in the dairy department and Mr. Gussman is in the vegetable department and when they return to Puerto Rico at the end of three months they will be promotion men in their field. Anyone who would like to invite them out give Carrie a ring at 7046.

The JCC'ers are working very hard on special dedication aprons and deserve a pat on the back. The aprons are of white crinoline with blue crinoline bands and a blue Jewish Star for the pocket. Really pretty!

Charles and Hilda Danish are very lucky people—a relative moving to Miami Beach, Florida. When the cold winds blow you can bet that Hilda will be talking of visiting her sister, Mrs. Rosalind Roth. Meanwhile, Mrs. Roth and daughter Susan, and a third sister, Mrs. Esther Leibick stopped off at 16-Q Ridge last week en route to Florida for a brief family reunion.

Ben Perelzweig who rules a roost surrounded by women had a field day last week—his two nephews invaded. Arnie and Butch Melk came down from Maplewood, New Jersey to show 6-E Hillside what boys can be like.

If you see a car driving around with just one wheel, call Pauline Trattler QUICK! The Trattlers' family coach is minus one wheel as of last Saturday and no one is very happy with it up on cinder blocks. It was white-walled, too!

On March 3 four women from the County for a very interesting visit in Annapolis. They are members of the National Council of Jewish Women, Prince Georges County Section. Mrs. Gladys Chasnoff, Phyllis Bloomberg, Buelah Bukzin and Ruth Tennenbaum represented Greenbelt at the meetings with Governor McKeldin and the delegation from Prince Georges County. They also sat in on a session of the Legislature and toured the Governor's Mansion with Mrs. McKeldin as their guide. Their only complaint is that they did not have enough time (a very common complaint in Greenbelt, incidentally!)

Mrs. Eva Goalwin from New York City has been visiting her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kahn, 2-C Gardenway and getting reacquainted with her two granddaughters.

Freddy Rubin, 6-A Hillside, will be celebrating his fifth birthday with a party on Saturday. Happy birthday, Freddy!

Girl Scout Intermediate Troop 146 had loads of fun at a swimming party at the Ambassador Hotel and topped it off with supper at the Langley Park Hot Shoppe. Bet those girls were ravenous after all that exercise!

A Chinese girl from Formosa and a young man from Greece, also panel members, were unable to attend. Dr. F. A. Bridgers, Foreign Student Advisor at the University of Maryland, moderator, was a guest along with Mrs. Braund, Mrs. Mott, Mrs. Goode, Mr. Sondergard, Mr. Chotiner, Dr. Love, and Mr. Schneider.

Judith Perelzweig celebrated her thirteenth birthday in high style on February 18 with a family dinner at Napoleon's Restaurant.

Time to welcome some new neighbors to Greenbelt. Donald Davis of 69-F Ridge; John Dixon of 44-F Ridge; and Harold Harris of 59-K Ridge have recently moved in. The John F. Baxters have transferred from 14-A Crescent to 5-G Plateau (GR. 3-6356).

Robert J. Keim, 4-K Laurel Hill (GR. 4-8352) is originally from Los Angeles, although he has lived in this area for two years. He is single and works for the National Security Agency at Ft. Mead.

Mr. and Mrs. James Weidman and daughter, Wendy (2½) are now living in 3-D Gardenway (GR. 4-9495). The Weidmans are from this area and Mr. Weidman works for the Jewel Tea Company.

Welcome to you-all! Why not scoop your court and have the distinction of being the first to call the news in to me? C'mon gals, get busy, but above all, get the news to me before Tuesday night.

Fishermen Urged To Join Waltonians

By Dan Branch

The Greenbelt Chapter of the Isaac Walton League will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday, March 10, at 8 p.m. in the "Firemen's Hall."

All persons interested in membership in this organization which is dedicated to soil conservation and the propagation of wild life, should attend this meeting.

The League is currently sponsoring the "clean-up" program of the Greenbelt lake. The lake is well stocked and has been declared one of the best places in this area to fish for large- and small-mouth bass.

Band Notes

At the first quarter meeting of the Greenbelt Community Band the parent band members elected two new members to the executive board, Vincent Caruso, President and Mrs. Sandilands, Librarian. The incumbents reelected were, W. Hopkins, V. Pres. in charge of instruments, L. Lushine, former President as Vice President in charge of uniforms, Mr. Joseph Remenick, Treasurer, Mrs. D. Bartholomew, Secretary, Mrs. Chavrid, Assistant Treasurer and Michael Ronca Band Director. A vote of thanks and a round of applause was given to the past Board and to all those who contributed to the successful termination of last year's activities.

All parent band members and anyone interested in registering his child in our band organization are invited to attend our band rehearsals which are held every Monday night from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Several instruments are available. The minimum registration age is nine years.

Why let a Real Estate Broker handle the sale of your home?
Because we have prospective buyers for houses and apartments in Greenbelt. Because we can help arrange financing for prospective buyers. Because we can give you advice with regards to taxes, loans, sales and purchases. Because we can relieve you of the burden involved in advertising, demonstrating and selling your home. Because we are licensed and bonded and know the intricacies of the real estate business. And because our service costs you nothing. Come in and talk it over. We're open every day, weekdays, Saturdays and Sundays.
